| | Indicator | Highly Effective (4) | Effective (3) | Improvement Necessary (2) | Ineffective (1) |
|---------|---|--|--|--|--|
| 1.0 Hu | man Resource Manage | er – The superintendent uses the | role of human resource mar | nager to drive improvements i | n building leader |
| effecti | veness and student ach | ievement. | | | _ |
| 1.1 | The superintendent effectively recruits, hires, assigns, and retains school leaders. | The superintendent consistently considers an administrator's effectiveness as the primary factor when recruiting, hiring, assigning, promoting or retaining the leader and monitors the effectiveness of the personnel process utilized throughout the school corporation. The superintendent consistently considers school or corporation goals when making personnel decisions. | The superintendent routinely considers an administrator's effectiveness as the primary factor when recruiting, hiring, assigning, promoting, or retaining the leader. The superintendent routinely considers school or corporation goals when making personnel decisions. | The superintendent occasionally considers an administrator's effectiveness as the primary factor when recruiting, hiring, assigning, promoting, or retaining the leader. The superintendent occasionally considers school or corporation goals when making personnel decisions. | The superintendent rarely considers an administrator's effectiveness when recruiting, hiring, assigning, promoting or retaining the leader. The superintendent does not consider school or corporation goals when making personnel decisions. |
| 1.2 | The superintendent creates a professional development system for school leaders based on strengths and needs. | The superintendent has in place a system of professional development that is based on individual administrator needs. The superintendent uses data from performance evaluations to assess proficiencies and identify priority needs to support and retain effective administrators. | Some effort has been made to provide professional development to meet the needs of individual administrators. | The superintendent is aware of the individual needs of administrators, but professional development is only provided in meetings at this time, rather than incorporating the use of collaboration, study teams, etc. | Professional development is typically "one size fits all," and there is little or no evidence of providing for individual administrator needs. |
| 1.3 | The superintendent identifies and mentors emerging leaders to assume key leadership responsibilities. | The superintendent has identified and mentored multiple administrators or instructional personnel who have assumed administrative positions and/or administrative responsibilities. Administrators throughout the corporation refer to the superintendent as a mentor. | The superintendent has identified and mentored at least one emerging leader to assume leadership responsibility in an instructional leadership role. | The superintendent has provided some training to an emerging school leader. | There is no evidence of effort to develop any leadership skills in others. |

| | Indicator | Highly Effective (4) | Effective (3) | Improvement Necessary (2) | Ineffective (1) |
|-----|--|---|---|---|---|
| 1.4 | The superintendent provides evidence of delegation and trust in subordinate leaders. | Employees throughout the corporation are empowered to do their jobs. Instructional personnel participate in the facilitation of meetings and exercise leadership in committees and task forces; other employees, including noncertified, exercise appropriate authority and assume leadership roles where appropriate. The climate of trust and delegation in the school corporation contributes directly to the identification and empowerment of the next generation of leadership. | There is a clear pattern of delegated decisions, with authority to match responsibility at most every level in the school corporation. Instructional personnel participate in the facilitation of meetings and exercise leadership in committees and task forces. Other employees are not utilized in leadership roles within the organization. | The superintendent sometimes delegates, but also maintains decision-making authority that could be delegated to others. | The superintendent does not delegate or afford subordinates the opportunity to exercise independent judgment. |
| 1.5 | The superintendent provides formal and informal feedback to the administrative team with the exclusive purpose of improving individual and organizational performance. | The superintendent uses a variety of creative ways to provide positive and corrective feedback to the administrative team on a consistent basis. The entire corporation reflects the superintendent's focus on accurate, timely, and specific recognition. The superintendent balances individual recognition with team and corporation-wide recognition. Informal and formal positive feedback is linked to corporation goals. | The superintendent provides regular formal feedback to the administrative team and provides informal feedback to reinforce effective and highly effective performance. | The superintendent provides the minimum required formal feedback to the administrative team. Informal feedback is occasionally provided. | The superintendent provides no informal or formal feedback to the administrative team. |

| | Indicator | Highly Effective (4) | Effective (3) | Improvement Necessary (2) | Ineffective (1) | | |
|---------|--|---|--|---|--|--|--|
| 2.0 Ins | structional Leadership | - The superintendent acutely foc | uses on effective teaching a | and learning, possesses a deep | and comprehensive | | |
| under | understanding of best instructional practices, and continuously promotes activities that contribute to the academic success of all students. | | | | | | |
| 2.1 | The superintendent demonstrates the use of student achievement data to make instructional leadership decisions. | The superintendent can specifically document examples of decisions throughout the corporation that have been made on the basis of data analysis. The superintendent has coached school administrators to improve their data analysis skills. | The superintendent uses multiple data sources, including state, corporation, school, and classroom assessments in data analysis. The superintendent systematically examines data to find strengths and weaknesses. The superintendent empowers teaching and administrative staff to determine priorities from data. Data analysis is regularly the subject of faculty meetings and professional development sessions. | The superintendent is aware of state, corporation, and school results but few decisions have been linked to the data. | The superintendent does not utilize data to make decisions. | | |
| 2.2 | The superintendent demonstrates evidence of student improvement through student achievement results. | A consistent record of improved student achievement exists on multiple indicators of student success. Student success occurs not only on the overall averages, but in each sub group. Data analysis from prior years indicates that the superintendent has focused on improving performance. The superintendent aggressively establishes continuous growth standards moving performance to the exemplary level. | The superintendent reaches the targeted performance goals for student achievement. The average of the student population improves, as does the achievement of each sub group of students. | Some evidence of improvement exists, but in general, there is lack of meeting student achievement goals. | The superintendent takes no responsibility for the data outcomes. The superintendent does not believe that student achievement can improve. The superintendent has not taken decisive action to improve student achievement. | | |

| | Indicator | Highly Effective (4) | Effective (3) | Improvement Necessary (2) | Ineffective (1) |
|-----|----------------------------|---|------------------------------------|------------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 2.3 | The superintendent | The superintendent regularly surveys | The superintendent frequently | The superintendent rarely seeks | The superintendent seeks no |
| | actively solicits and uses | and seeks support from all stakeholders | seeks input from various | input from various stakeholders in | input from various |
| | feedback and help from | in the school corporation in regards to | stakeholders in matters related to | matters related to the improvement | stakeholders and makes all |
| | all key stakeholders in | improvement of student achievement. | the improvement in student | in student achievement. | decisions related to the |
| | order to drive student | | achievement. | | improvement in student |
| | achievement. | | | | achievement in isolation. |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | | | |

| | Indicator | Highly Effective (4) | Effective (3) | Improvement Necessary (2) | Ineffective (1) | | |
|---------|--|---|---|---|---|--|--|
| 3.0 Per | 3.0 Personal Behavior – The superintendent models personal behaviors that set the tone for effective organizational leadership. | | | | | | |
| 3.1 | The superintendent models professional, ethical, and respectful behavior at all times and expects the same behavior from others. | The superintendent is an exemplary model of appropriate professional behavior and expects like treatment. | On a regular basis the superintendent displays appropriate professional behavior. | Occasionally the superintendent has not displayed appropriate professional behavior | The superintendent does not display appropriate professional behavior. | | |
| 3.2 | The superintendent organizes time and prioritizes tasks for effective leadership. | The organization skills of the superintendent support innovative and creative activities that involve all of the leadership stakeholders in the corporation. The superintendent incorporates project management skills along with a systems-thinking, as well as detailed, follow-up procedures to ensure that effective corporation decisions are made. | The organization skills of the superintendent allows for some innovations, some time to engage in leadership activities and minimal collaboration with people at all levels. Most tasks are managed and completed by the superintendent on a timely basis. | Tasks are managed using lists of milestones and deadlines, but periodically, not completed on time. | Tasks are managed in a haphazard fashion. There is little or no evidence of established or achieved milestones or deadlines. | | |

| | Indicator | Highly Effective (4) | Effective (3) | Improvement Necessary (2) | Ineffective (1) |
|--------|---|---|---|--|--|
| 4.0 Bu | ilding Relationships –Tl | he superintendent builds relation | nships to ensure that all ke | y stakeholders work effective | ly with each other to |
| achiev | e organizational results. | | | | |
| 4.1 | The superintendent actively engages in communication with parents and community. | There is clear evidence of communication with parents and the community. Survey data is utilized to measure parents and community members viewpoints of educational objectives. The superintendent uses relationships and school/community partnerships to affect community-wide change that improves both the community and work of the school corporation. The superintendent manages an ever broadening portfolio of partnerships and collaborations that support the strategic plan of the school corporation. | There is some evidence of communication with parents and the community. The superintendent seeks out and creates new opportunities for meaningful partnerships and has built some collaborative relationships. The superintendent assumes leadership roles in community organizations. | School/community communications are not initiated by the superintendent. The superintendent rarely seeks or creates meaningful partnerships or collaborative relationships. The superintendent occasionally participates in community organizations but does not become actively involved. | The superintendent does not identify groups and potential partners within the community. The superintendent fails to ensure that parent and community activities are conducted. The superintendent fails to interact with parents and community groups that have a critical role in developing support for the school corporation. |
| 4.2 | The superintendent forges consensus for change and improvement throughout the school corporation. | The superintendent uses effective strategies to achieve a consensus for change and improvement. The superintendent guides others through change and addresses resistance to that change. The superintendent systemically monitors, implements and sustains the strategies for change. | The superintendent uses effective strategies to work toward a consensus for change and improvement. The superintendent directs change and improvement processes securing the allies necessary to support the change effort. The superintendent monitors, implements and sustains the strategies for change. | The superintendent occasionally identifies areas where consensus is necessary. Areas of change that are identified as needing consensus has yet to implement a process for change and improvement. Strategies for change are not implemented and unsuccessful in securing cooperation. | The superintendent fails to forge consensus for change. Fails to identify areas in which agreement and/or consensus is necessary. Rarely or never develops a process for change and/or improvement. Rarely or never seeks feedback or secures cooperation. |

| | Indicator | Highly Effective (4) | Effective (3) | Improvement Necessary (2) | Ineffective (1) |
|-----|---|---|---|---|--|
| 4.3 | The superintendent understands the role of the superintendent in engaging the public in controversial issues. | The superintendent consistently employs a variety of strategies to resolve conflicts and forge consensus within the school community. The superintendent consistently encourages open dialogue, considers diverse points of view, and expects the administrative team to mentor this philosophy. | The superintendent resolves conflicts and forges consensus within the school community in a constructive and respectful manner. The superintendent frequently encourages open dialogue, considers diverse points of view, and often expects the administrative team to mentor this philosophy. | The superintendent employs a limited number of strategies to resolve conflicts and forge consensus within the school community with limited success. | The superintendent fails to resolve conflicts or forge consensus within the school community. |
| 4.4 | The superintendent keeps the school board informed on issues, needs, and the overall operations of the school corporation. | The superintendent communicates with all school members routinely, using a variety of methods. | The superintendent communicates with all school board members periodically. | The superintendent communicates with selected school board members only on an emergency basis. | The superintendent has minimal communication with the school board outside of meetings. |
| 4.5 | The superintendent encourages open communication and dialogue with school board members. | The superintendent has created a culture where input and feedback from all school board members is both sought and encouraged. The superintendent engages in open discussion with the school board on a consistent basis. | The superintendent seeks input and feedback from all school board members on a frequent basis. | The superintendent seeks input and feedback from only a few school board members. | The superintendent rarely seeks input from the school board and makes decisions unilaterally. |
| 4.6 | The superintendent provides the school board with a written agenda and background material before each board meeting. | The superintendent creates an agenda that prioritizes items related to student achievement and corporation goals. Complete and thorough background material is provided so that the board can make an informed decision. | The superintendent creates an agenda that routinely focuses on student achievement issues and corporation goals. Adequate background material is provided to allow the board to make an informed decision. | The superintendent creates an agenda that occasionally includes items related to student achievement and corporation goals. Limited background material is provided. | The superintendent creates an agenda that focuses only on operational matters and provides insufficient background material. |

| | Indicator | Highly Effective (4) | Effective (3) | Improvement Necessary (2) | Ineffective (1) |
|--------|---|--|---|---|--|
| 5.0 Cu | lture of Achievement - | The superintendent develops a | corporation-wide culture of | achievement aligned to the | school corporation's |
| vision | of success for every stu | ıdent. | - | | • |
| 5.1 | The superintendent empowers building leaders to set rigorous academic and behavior expectations for every student. | The superintendent leads and involves the administrative team in a comprehensive annual analysis of school and corporation performance. Multiple data sources are utilized to analyze corporation and schools' strengths and weaknesses and a collaborative process is used to develop focused and results-oriented goals. Clear expectations are established and administrators and educators are provided differentiated resources and support to disaggregate data and to assist in identifying and meeting each student's academic, social, emotional, and behavioral needs. | The superintendent guides the administrative team in an annual analysis of school and corporation performance. Required data sources are utilized to analyze the corporation and schools' strengths and weaknesses and a collaborative process is used to develop measurable goals. General expectations are established and administrators and educators are provided differentiated resources and support to disaggregate data. | The superintendent provides minimal direction for the administrative team in an annual analysis of school and corporation performance. Limited data sources are used to develop goals which are not focused or measurable. Some expectations are established and limited resources and occasional supports are provided to support the disaggregation of data | The superintendent provides no direction for the administrative team in an annual analysis of school and corporation performance. No data sources are used to develop goals. The superintendent does not establish expectations or provide the necessary support for the disaggregation of data. |
| 5.2 | The superintendent establishes rigorous academic goals and priorities that are systematically monitored for continuous improvement. | The superintendent regularly reports on the progress of rigorous academic goals and corporation academic priorities that have been established by the superintendent and approved by the school board. The monitoring of goals and regular revising and updating of such plans is an ongoing process conducted by the superintendent and the board. These rigorous academic goals are shared throughout the school community through multiple communication systems. | The superintendent has presented goals for board approval that clearly articulate the academic rigor and academic priorities of the corporation's programs. Approved goals by the board are shared and available for the entire community. | The superintendent has occasionally made some reference to academic goals and school improvement priorities. There are some goals established but none that were approved by the board. | The superintendent has no goals and no school improvement priorities established for the corporation. |

| | Indicator | Highly Effective (4) | Effective (3) | Improvement Necessary (2) | Ineffective (1) |
|-----|---|--|---|--|---|
| 5.3 | The superintendent ensures that all students have full and equitable access to educational programs, curricula, and support systems. | The superintendent establishes clear expectations and provides resources that enable administrators and teachers to identify each student's academic, social, emotional, and behavioral needs. | The superintendent establishes clear expectations and provides resources that enable administrators and teachers to identify a majority of students' academic, social, emotional, and behavioral needs. | The superintendent establishes general expectations and resources are not allocated on the basis of any identified needs of students. | The superintendent does not establish clear expectations and resources are not allocated on the basis of any identified needs of students. |
| 5.4 | The superintendent expects building leaders to build productive and respectful relationships with parents/guardians and engage them in their children's learning. | The superintendent sets clear expectations and provides multiple resources to support administrators to consistently and regularly engage all families in facilitating their children's learning at school and home. | The superintendent sets general expectations and provides adequate resources for administrators to regularly engage families in facilitating their children's learning at school and home. | The superintendent sets minimal expectations and provides occasional resources for administrators to engage families in facilitating their children's learning at school and home. | The superintendent does not set expectations or provide resources for administrators to regularly communicate with families on ways to facilitate their children's learning at school and home. |

| | Indicator | Highly Effective (4) | Effective (3) | Improvement Necessary (2) | Ineffective (1) |
|---------|--|--|---|---|---|
| 6.0 Org | ganizational, Operationa | l, and Resource Management - | The superintendent levera | ges organizational, operation | al, and resource |
| manag | gement skills to support | school corporation improvemen | t and achieve desired educa | ational outcomes. | |
| 6.1 | The superintendent employs factual basis for decisions, including specific reference to internal and external data on student achievement and objective data on curriculum, teaching practices, and leadership practices. | Decisions that are made are neither by consensus nor by leadership mandate, but are consistently based on the data. Data, from a wide range of sources, including qualitative and quantitative, are referenced in all decisions. Numerous examples of practices that have been changed, discontinued, and/or initiated based on data analysis can be produced. | Most decisions that are made are neither by consensus nor by leadership mandate, but are consistently based on the data. Data, from various sources are referenced in all decisions. Several examples of practices that have been changed, discontinued, and/or initiated based on data analysis can be produced | A few decisions that are made are neither by consensus nor by leadership mandate, but are consistently based on the data. Data, from limited sources are referenced in some decisions. Minimal examples of practices that have been changed, discontinued, and/or initiated based on data analysis can be produced. | Data is rarely used for decisions. Most decisions are made based on personal viewpoints or what is popular at the time. |
| 6.2 | The superintendent demonstrates personal proficiency in technology implementation and utilization. | The superintendent creates new opportunities for technological learning and empowers the administrative team to use new technology initiatives. The superintendent serves as a model for technology implementation. | The superintendent consistently utilizes technology within his/her daily responsibilities. The superintendent demonstrates effort toward serving as a model for technology implementation. | The superintendent occasionally utilizes technology within his/her daily responsibilities. There is little or no evidence of the superintendent taking a personal initiative to learn new technology. | The superintendent has limited use of technology within his/her daily responsibilities. The superintendent does not serve as a model for technology implementation. |
| 6.3 | The superintendent oversees the use of practices for the safe, efficient, and effective operation of the school corporation's physical plant, equipment, and auxiliary services (e.g., food services, student transportation). | The superintendent ensures there are updated procedures in place to address the safety of students and staff. The superintendent ensures staff is properly trained and competent to carry out their duties with respect to the corporation's physical plant, equipment, and auxiliary services. Periodic reviews of these procedures are in place and necessary actions are taken to address operational deficiencies. | The superintendent ensures there are procedures in place to address the safety of students and staff. The superintendent routinely provides opportunities for staff training in order to carry out their duties with respect to the corporation's physical plant, equipment, and auxiliary services. Periodic reviews of these procedures are in place. | The superintendent has minimal procedures in place to address the safety of students and staff. The superintendent provides minimal opportunities for staff training in order to carry out their duties with respect to the corporation's physical plant, equipment, and auxiliary services. There are occasional, unscheduled reviews of these procedures. | The superintendent has no procedures in place to address the safety of students and staff. The superintendent provides no opportunities for staff training in order to carry out their duties with respect to the corporation's physical plant, equipment, and auxiliary services. |

| | Indicator | Highly Effective (4) | Effective (3) | Improvement Necessary (2) | Ineffective (1) |
|-----|---|---|--|---|--|
| 6.4 | The superintendent provides responsible fiscal stewardship. | The superintendent maintains a fiscally sound financial budget, monitors expenditures to be used in an efficient manner, and reallocates those savings to help the corporation achieve its strategic priorities. Data is produced and shared with all stakeholders which reflect the positive impact of reallocated resources in achieving strategic priorities. The superintendent has established processes to increase fiscal resources, e.g., grants, donations, and community resources. | The superintendent maintains a fiscally sound financial budget, monitors expenditures to be used in an efficient manner, and reallocates those savings to help the corporation achieve its strategic priorities. Data is produced which reflect the positive impact of reallocated resources in achieving strategic priorities. | The superintendent lacks proficiency in budgetary practices to focus resources on strategic priorities. Minimal data is produced to support reallocated resources. | The superintendent does not demonstrate sound, fiscal stewardship. |
| 6.5 | The superintendent demonstrates compliance with legal requirements. | The superintendent demonstrates an understanding of the legal standards and board policy requirements of the corporation, and consistently adheres to those standards and requirements. | The superintendent demonstrates an awareness of the legal standards and board policy requirements of the school corporation and generally adheres to those standards and requirements. | The superintendent has limited knowledge of legal standards and/or board policy requirements and occasionally adheres to those standards and requirements. | The superintendent has minimal knowledge of legal standards and/or board policy requirements and rarely adheres to those standards and requirements. |