

2016 Lorin A. Burt Award Criteria

Dr. Lorin A. Burt, described as one of the nation's outstanding young men in the field of education, served as executive secretary to the Indiana School Boards Association from 1960 to 1967. Following Dr. Burt's death in 1968, a memorial award was devised to be given annually to an outstanding educator for “overall excellence in contributions to Indiana education.”

IMPORTANT: A nominee will not be considered for Lorin A. Burt Outstanding Educator Award if candidate's accomplishments relate to his/her role as a school board member. For school board service, board member nominations must be submitted for the Outstanding Boardmanship Award.

The Indiana School Boards Association presents annually the Lorin A. Burt Outstanding Educator Award for outstanding contribution to education. Criteria to be used for selection of nominees are:

- The nominee must have made a significant contribution to Indiana public education or to education in his/her community through meritorious service in roles that may include but not be limited to that of teacher, administrator, college professor, or other comparable educator role.
- The nomination need not be restricted to the year in which the award is given, but may be for a singular experience in any one year or for accumulative experiences over a period of years.
- The nominations may be submitted by a majority decision of an Indiana school board, a superintendent of any Indiana school corporation, or an individual school board member, if the local school board is a member of ISBA.
- The nominating data should include the name of the nominee and the contributions upon which the nomination is based.
- The nomination deadline of July 29, 2016 will be strictly followed.
- The recipient will be honored at the ISBA/IAPSS Fall Conference on Monday, September 27, 2016, at the Indiana Convention Center.
- Either print and mail the completed form to ISBA, One N. Capitol Avenue, Suite 1215, Indianapolis, IN 46204-2225, or email to Michael Adamson (madamson@isba-ind.org).

Contact the ISBA office, 317-639-0330, ext. 109 if you need further information.
